

Olympia Pharmaceuticals and Wesley Pharmaceuticals Co-Founder, FAMU Pharmacy Alumnus Stan Loomis Establishes Scholarship
The Stan Loomis Scholarship recognizes academic excellence and community engagement for the next generation of pharmacy students

ORLANDO, FL – Stan Loomis, a distinguished alumnus of The Florida A&M University \(FAMU\) College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences and co-founder of Olympia Pharmaceuticals and Wesley Pharmaceuticals, is proud to announce the establishment of The Stan Loomis Scholarship to help support aspiring pharmacists at his alma mater.

The Stan Loomis Scholarship will provide two awards of $5,000 each for qualified students entering FAMU's College of Pharmacy. To be eligible, applicants must have a minimum 3.5 GPA and have completed at least 100 hours of community service. This scholarship is specific to students who have completed a full undergraduate program before entering the pharmacy program of study.

"We all benefit when we invest in the next generation of healthcare professionals," said Loomis. "I know firsthand the value of a rigorous pharmacy education, and I believe it's essential to support students who demonstrate not only academic excellence but also a commitment to serving their communities and leading by example."

Loomis, who earned his B.S. in Pharmacy from FAMU, has had a distinguished career in the pharmaceutical industry, co-founding Olympia Pharmaceuticals and Wesley Pharmaceuticals. He also launched and managed over 15 pharmacies, scaling them into thriving, multi-million-dollar enterprises.

Naomi Loomis, Stan's wife and co-founder of Olympia, added, "This scholarship is about giving students the opportunity to not just excel academically but to truly make a difference. We believe that pharmacy is a career rooted in compassion and service, and we hope this scholarship encourages students to lead with both intellect and heart."

“We are deeply grateful to distinguished alumnus Stan Loomis for his generosity and vision. The Stan Loomis Scholarship not only honors his remarkable career but also invests in the future of pharmacy and public health by supporting student-learners who embody both academic excellence and community service. His commitment strengthens our mission at FAMU CoPPS, IPH and inspires the next generation of Rattlers to lead with intellect, compassion, and purpose,” stated Seth Y. Ablordeppey, PhD Interim Dean & Professor of the FAMU CoPPS, IPH.

Dr. Ablordeppey presented a token of appreciation to pharmacist Stan Loomis for serving as keynote at the 2025 White Coat Ceremony.

In addition to assisting FAMU pharmacy students, The Stan Loomis Scholarship underscores the university's commitment to cultivating future leaders in pharmacy. FAMU's CoPPS, IPH has long been recognized for its dedication to academic excellence, community involvement, and the development of students who will make a meaningful impact in the field.

Earlier this year, Stan was inducted into the FAMU CoPPS, IPH Gallery of Distinction, where he was recognized for his remarkable achievements and innovations in the pharmaceutical industry. Student-learners who meet the eligibility criteria may apply for the Stan Loomis Scholarship in the new year.
